VANILLA CHAI OLD FASHIONED

Classic, cozy, and just the right amount of spice. This cocktail is like wearing your favorite cozy sweater. Vanilla chai mixed with your choice of whisky or bourbon, a dash of bitters, and a bit of sweet maple syrup, a total hug in a glass.

SANTA'S SPIKED EGG NOG

Forget the milk and cookies—this year, Santa's upgrading to something with a little more kick! With smooth white rum, a dash of vanilla, and creamy eggnog, this holiday treat is all shaken up and topped with a sprinkle of cinnamon magic. Leave this by the chimney, and you might just find an extra gift (or a jolly old guy passed out in your recliner).

ELVES LIKE MARGARITAS TOO

After a long season of toy-making madness, even Santa's helpers need a little R&R—and this is their go-to sip. A festive twist on the classic, it's got tequila, crisp apple cider, and a dash of lime juice to keep things merry. Rimmed with cinnamon and garnished with a slice of orange, it's basically vacation-in-a-glass for overworked elves like yourself.
